VOL. XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 1899. No. 36

Secretary Gage.

Secretary Alger.

The President's message was a silent document.

It was silent on the negro at an

What is to be the destiny of the negro?

The apologists are increasing.

The Washington Post is suffering with a severe attack of wind colic.

It will require two presidents, with the Post included, to make the negro accept such leadership as Kelly Miller and Booker T. Washington.

We have sold ds among the white people

Editor Fortune of the New York Age is a manly and fearless journalist

We need brave men and men of nerve.

Don't be a toady when you are right.

This is an ordeal through which the negro is passing.

There will be a bright day for the negro soon.

Be honest, true and manly.

What the colored race needs today is a Moses.

Is it best for the negro to be silent?

Be useful citizens and manly in your utterances.

Are the negroes cowards or are they manly?

Don't be alarmed, there will be a day of reckoning.

Speak the truth. be honest and sincere.

It is the coward who cannot speak the truth.

There are millions in this country who will need the help of the negro.

How did you like Editor Fortune's speech?

The Post as well as other papers need apologetic negro leadership.

There are breakers ahead.

Should a race be compromised because we don't want to insult our enemies?

Let us live in hope, the promise land will be reached some day.

Don't forget to express your honest convictions.

Think well of your neighbor, you may ask him a favor yet.

If you want a live paper, read THE BEE.

No one will regret the retirement of Secretary Bliss.

He will do all of his weeping to himself.

No one will weep because he leaves the Cabinet.

If one or two others will go, the country would be in a better condition.

It is the brave man who dares to express his honest convictions.

THE BEE takes the lead, and all others follow.

Send your advertisements to THE BEE. This paper will do you good.

Gray and Costly are running a first class house.

You should speak cordially when you know you are right.

No trimmer can succeed in anything.

A new city Postmaster will be appointed soon.

It will be well for the negro to be independent in politics.

It is not necessary for the colored man to be uneasy.

There is a bright future before him.

Sergeant Daily is the man to be promoted.

He is the best, most active and he most deserving Sergeant on the force.

You should never believe rumors.

The Colored American has at last concluded to stand square on a school trustee candidate.

Who informed our contemp ry that Mrs. Terrell is to resign.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

CANADA OFFERS THE REMEDY.

The Canadian Emigration and Investment Company, if we are to judge from the gentlemen who are at the head of it and the splendid inducements offered, is one which may do much to relieve the congestion at the South and at the same time be of immense benefit to those who may take advantage of the opportunity of leaving. We are somewhat surprised that the newspapers have kept the matter so quiet, when we come to consider, the wholesale denunciation of the colored people and seeming desire to get rid of them. The offer of remunerative employment and an opportunity to purchase anywhere from a one acre lot to a hundred acre farm on the very easiest of terms is far better than being compelled to work year in and year out at the South at only nominal wages and doubtful payment with no opportunity to purchase homes, no facilities for education and no civil or political rights. It has been said that the colored people cannot stand the climate of Canada; but this is not true. Thousands left the South before the war and located, raised healthy and prosperous families and are now enjoying freedom and political and civil rights without molestation or question. It is all nonsense to talk about the inability of the colored people to stand the climate of Canada. The recent troubles in North Carolina, the disposition to withhold the means of education, the apparently growing sentiment justifying inhumane treatment all argue the propriety of leaving the South and settling in Canada or any other place where manhood-rights are duly acknowledged. This seems imperative if we seriously consider the duty of providing a sure means of prosperity for our children. It would seem that the South does not want us and now that it is possible to leave, let hundreds and thousands avail themselves of leaving a land of persecution and of settling where human rights are freely granted, where homes can be secured and where we can feel the the pulsation of hearts free from the blighting influence of oppression. This excellent opportunity held out to honest, manly and energetic southern men and women should meet with ready acceptance. The laws in some of the southern states practically prohibit agents to enter to secure settlers for other parts. Let those who wish to leave be on the alert and show the southern unjust and tyrannical autocrat that they may soon have an opportunity of raising their own rice tobacco and cotton and of realizing the difference between a lazy boss and an industrious workman.

A SOCIALIST MAYOR ELECTED.

Since the organization of the Socialist party and the agitation by that party, the politicians have frequently worried themselves in the event of success to the party would play havoc with the people. The Literary Digest, one of the greatest papers in the world, informs us that John C. Chase of Havenhil, Mass., was elected mayor last month. The new mayor's message was a most wonderful and surprising document. He demonstrated the fact that he was a humantarian and if all parties in the United States would adopt the policy, inaugurated in the message of Mayor Chase, there would be a heaven on earth and the people be angels.

SECOND BAPTIST LYCEUM.

It is very surprising to the many friends of the Second Baptist church, and more especially when those friends know that Dr. W. Bishop Jonhson is pastor, to see the lyceum used for political purposes and to bolster up a lot of second rate and broken down politicians. Dr. Johnson, and his members owe it to themselves to make a change in the personal of that organization. It is of no benefit to the church as it is at present constituted.—A new head is needed.

THEY MAY BE NEEDED.

It is said that Adjt. Gen. Corbin and Sur. Gen. Sternburg are suspiciously eager to have those colored regiments which are officered by colored men mustered out of the service. We would suggest to these officials that the nightmare of social equality should not cause them to lose sight of the fact that, in event of war with Germany over the Samoan question, these colored soldiers and officers may be needed Our race has fought for the stars and stripes in all the wars of this nation and if there is going to be a scrap with Germany we want to be in it. We would rather fight her than Spain, for we have not forgotten her recent outrageous treatment of our brothers in Hayti. "Remember Hayti," like "Remember the Maine," would be our rallying cry and the black phalanx would move forward as one man. In that charge we would, for the time, forget all the ills we bear at home.

TAKE NO BACKWATER.

Now that the Anglo-Saxon conduct of our recent war with Spain is undergoing an investigation and men in high places have been charged with crimes and misdemeanors we would like for our esteemed contemporary, the Washington Post, to come to the front with a double leaded leader in which it shall maintain, in its ablest and characteristic manner, that white troops should not be officered by white men. This would be in the line of consistency of which the Post claims a monopoly; since it has so strenuously held that the escapades of a few colored soldiers were proof, positive, that their colored officers were failures.

The editor of the Post is kept very busy these days answering editorials published in northern papers. That "northern conscience," of which Fred Douglass spoke, is a sleeping giant, as the young sophamore on the Post will discover some day.

Our local newspaper are fighting shy of an open declaration that Senator Quay should not succeed himself. Yet they, each, have two editorials snugly tucked away, one commendatory and one denunciatory; the way the cat jumps will decide which one will see the light of the printers' ink.

OUR NEED.

The BEE respectfully calls the attention of the District Commissioners the necessity of recommending to Congress a change in the laws governing the Police Court. The BEE suggests that a bill be prepared allowing defendents to select the judge before whom they are to be tried. The BEE as well as the people see the necessity of such a change.

The municipal court bill ought to be defeated.

The new city postmaster may be Wine or Dr. Henderson.

WHERE WE STAND.

From La., Southern Republican.

Pinchback, Jim Lewis and other negro political pap-seekers, who stood up in the recent meeting of Afro-American Council in Washington and advocated putting the Cubans and Philippines under the yoke of American prejudice, ought to be read out of good society. If the Cubans and Philippines themselves want annexation with the United States, well and good. But to force it on them would be criminal. Right here the Southern Republican takes its stand. We believe in this immortal principle enunciated in the Declaration of Independence. "All unjust powers of government are derived from the consent of the governed. We are opposed to "expansion" vi et amins. We have been taught that it was anamerican and it is surely unrepublican.

Governor Pinchback may be a pap hunter, but he is manly. Why should he not be a pap hunter? The world is made up of "pap hunters," and the editor of the New Orleans Southern Republican, not excepted.

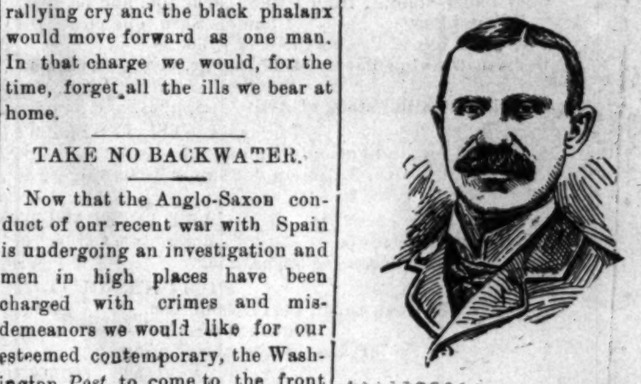
Why can't the colored population have one bailiff in the Police Court?

For years the South denied the charge of a shot-gun policy; but emboldened by the apathy of the North and the unwillingness of the Administration to punish Waddell and his co-conspirators, the Post now openly admits that there really was a shot-gun policy at the South which rescued that section from ignorant negro and carpet-bag rule and that the waving of the bloody shirt at the North was founded upon a fact.

Col. M. M. Parker, the national committeeman for the District of Columbia is the choice of the republicans for the next convention.

General Eagan ought not only be tried, but he should be dismissed from the army.

HORN, THE TAILOR.



In presenting to the readers of the BEE the man whose name is a household word, it is because the people of this city have been paying fancy prices for clothes made from imported goods and there is no reason that a large price should be paid for goods that can be purchased for one-half the cost at Horn, the tailor. The BEE respectfully suggests to its readers to call and see Mr. Horn and have him show you his goods which he guarantees to be imported and made to order in first class style. Don't miss the number, 637 F street, n. w.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

DR. BROOKS' CARD.

Editor of the BEE:—

In a recent publication, in the daily press, relative to the smallpox in South Washington, it stated that a colored physician attended the case. I desire to say, so far as I am concerned, to those who reside in that section of the city where I have a large number of patients, that I am not the physician referred to in that publication. I have had no connection with the case whatever.

Phil. Broome Brooks, M. D.

THEY FAVOR MR. SMITH.

Editor of the BEE:—

I favor the appointment of C. Maurice Smith, Esq., as one of the associate justices of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. He would be the right man in the right place.

A. M. Hill.

Editor of the BEE:—

I see that it is the intention of a certain class of our fellow citizens to have a street parade April 16th. Will you advise my people to dispense with street parades and have something else?

Lewis McNight.

A NEW HOME FOR THE NEGRO.

Circulars from the Canadian Emigration Company, have been forwarded to certain colored citizens in the United States, under "strictly personal" cover. They urge the cooperation of the persons addressed in helping a scheme whereby many colored people may leave the South and go to Canada.

Dr. R. E. Hart of Isreal C. M. E. church, is strongly of the opinion that an officeholder is incapacitated for leadership. We agree with him.

THE AFRO-AMERICAN COMMITTEE.

WHAT THE PRESIDENT SAID.—THE COMMITTEE REBUKED.—HELD THE NORTHERN NEGRO RESPONSIBLE.

The Afro-American Council that convened in this city last month, otherwise known as the Methodist Conference of the A. M. E. church. the President had made up his mind not to receive the committee, but said he, after looking over a few names he saw some of his friends about it. He didn't like the idea of having been criticised by this alleged conference and he wanted to know what he had done. One member of the committee said that no outhern man condemned him, but those disgruntled politicians from the North were the ones. As a matter of fact, the politicians from the North have the votes while negroes from the South can only give delegates One elects while the other can only nominate is the opinion of the northern politicians.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

SUPERINTENDENTS POWELL AND COOK'S REPORTS.

The annual report of the School Board has been issued to the public. It shows that 1107 teachers were employed 739 of whom were white and 368 colored, the total amount of money disbursed being $764,627.11 of which amount the colored teachers receive about $240,000 an average of $24,000 per month. Of these the board has the following to say:

We do not believe that a more competent, faithful, or laborious class of public servants can be found. Their days are longer, their labor more exhausting of nervous force, their work exacting and important, their responsibilities greater, and their pay less than that of any other class of public officers of this District. We fear that the importance of their work is imperfectly appreciated.

KINDERGARTENS:

The notable addition to the system this year has been the introduction of kindergarten schools, Supt. Powell expresssing his satisfaction in the following words;

I am gratified to be able to state to the board that judging from the outlook at present, I believe we have started our kindergartens under conditions that give warrant of success to them. The teachers who have been employed are persons who for the most part have had experience and have proven their worth It was wise, I believe, for the board of trustees to require of applicants for teachers' positions in our kindergartens a preparation, scholastic and technical, as broad and exacting as those required of candidates for positions in onr graded schools.

MANUAL TRAINING.

For the manual training department, increased facilities are asked in the shape of a Manual Training High school, where our boys and girls mav be fitled for work in any of the renumerative fields of industrial activity.

NIGHT SCHOOLS.

Of night schools, the report urges that they be extended to include many of the suburban places not heretofore provided for. The ringing words of Supt. Powell in connection with these schools show his deep interest. If, says he in his report, the night schools are to be simply places where persons who are not otherwise provided for can get salaries. they would better be closed and the money either returned to the treasury or be given to some purpose that will benefit the community at large. It is not profitable for this any other community to open schoolroom doors, warm and light houses, and pay salaries for the instruction of people presenting themselves at night schools unless teachers are employed who thoroughly know their business, and besides knowing what to do are imbued with a philanthropic spirit or feeling toward their fellow man.

His recommendations for competitive examinations for all appointments will most certainly keep our schools to the present high standard. A week's holiday at Easter also suggested will meet with general approval.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPALS.

The report for the supervising principals submitted for them by Mr. Isaac Fairbrothers, is an exposition of the work of the schoolroom, showing clearly the correlation of the studies. Could this report together with the one made last yerr by Mr. A. T. Stewart be printed separately and have appended some general methods of presenting the subjects it might be possible to secure a very intelligent co-operation from parents to whom it might be distributed. I think the benefit derived would more than pay for the expense.

The report of Supt. Cook shows a very satisfactory condition of affairs in the colored schools witn the exception that many of the schools as high as the fifth grade have been compelled to run on half-day time owing to the lack of schoolrooms. He makes an urgent appeal to remedy the deplorable condition by erecting new buildings in the over-crowded localities. It may be stated here that much good co-operative work might be done by our citizens in such localities by combining their efforts with the school officials.

The new feature of the schools this year has been the introduction of kindergarten schools, which have proven very satisfactory. Supt. Cook pays a gracious tribute to those public spirited ladies of the Colored Womans League for their work in helping to engraft this department on our local system. The very excellent results attained by placing the primary schools in the hands of a special directress give proof of the wisdom of the change. The report for these primary schools, is one of the most interesting dealing with the work in the formative period of child life. The report of the directress of music deserves special mention as showing how in a very short time the work in this department has been unified. The work in tone building has been largely dwelt on, and the aesthetic side of the child has been cultivated and appeal to through selected rotesongs Too much importance can not be attached to the training of a child's voice for which nature herself has done so muco. Music is now not a pleasant pastime, but a thought study which not only builds the brain but elevates the soul.

Thq reports for the manual training cooking and sewing schools show progress and a very satisfactory course of instruction and corps of instructors. The reports for the graded schools have been submitted by the different supervisors, a notable absence being the report of H. P. Montgomery, the pioneer supervising principal, who is now confined to his home through sickness.

To no school officer can the success of the public schools, especially as to the detail work of the same, be more attributable than to Mr. Joseph Folck, clerk to Supt. Powell and secretary to the trustee board and Mr. John W. F. Smith. Teachers and parents whose business have brought them in contact with these two gentlemen attest their uniform courtesy and when the Commissioners come look for an assistant superintendent they surely will not be forced to search for one who knows our schools thoroughly.

"Miaco's City Club Company, which has been seen here before within the recollection of numerous bald-headed gentlemen, to say nothing of many lovers of variety, who are more hirsute, will doubtless attract numerous admirers of fair faces and shapely forms to the Lyceum, Monday Matinee January 30, when "The City Club will commence a week's engagement at that mirthful abode. The company this season is said to be an excellent one and to include in its membership only vaudeville and burlesque artists of the highest class, and to possess an unusually attractiveness in its chorus. The young women, comprising which are guaranteed to be not only attractive both of form and feature but to also be possessed of a clear, fresh young voice and the ability to use it to advantage. They will present themselves in the abbreviated glory of scanty draperies and tights in a spectacular production entitled "A Wild Night In Washington." It is a gorgeous affair and all the arts known to the electrician, mechanic and scene painter have been brought to bear upon "the grand transformation," which is patriotic in theme, and depicts "The Battle of Manila," "The Destruction of Cevera's Fleet, and "The Fall of Santiago." The burlesque includes bright songs, graceful dances and imposing marches.

Contributors to this column are requested to send in their matter on or before Monday of each week. This column is devoted to young ladies and any suggestion on fashions or pointers that will tend to benefit young ladies, will receive special consideration. All matter for this column must be addressed to the Society Editor.

M. T.—It is not right to use too much familiarity. Young men will go too far at times.

E. T.—It is the intention, from what I can understand, of the trustees to compel everybody to enter a competitive examination for positions in the schools.

Ollie—I have always found it best to be honest in everything. Deception with those who place confidence in you is bound to be exposed. A true girl is honest to the young man to whom she is engaged.

Ella:—Perhaps if your conscience would permit you to decline some of the many presents you receive, you would better appreciate his company.

Mollie:—The City of Berlin, October 6 crossed the Atlantic, from New York to Queenstown in 7 days 15 hours, and 48 minutes. Of course we can make much faster time now.

Teacher:—The old London bridge was the first stone bridge. It was commenced in 1176 and completed in 1209.

Miss T. M —You can generally tell how much one thinks of you after you have given him your picture.

E. O.—Apis, was the sacred bull of the Egyptians.

Michel:—It is not well to be too proud or selfish. Nothing is more beautiful in a young girl than sedateness and refinement.

Marriage:—I would not advise you to marry any man who cannot properly care for you. Marriage is a divine institution, but look at our divorce courts today. Be careful in your selection.

M. T.—To live beyond your means will make one embarrass himself some time. It is best that you be economical in everything.

Flirtation:—No sensible man will marry a woman who carries on flirtations. Young men have but little respect for such females. A reserved young lady can always command respect.

Ida—Never tie your faith to any particular person. Be independent. When you decide to marry select your associate. There can be no happiness without respect and love.

Anna:—The tower of Babel in Abyssinia is 680 feet high.

A. M.—The nome de plume of F. B. Harte is Bret Hart.

Callie:—Never become so conceited as to believe that your company cannot be done without. It is fatal some times to magnify your own importance as you may be disappointed.

Jane:—There was a time when beauty was a radiant star in your face. Trouble will often cause one's looks to change. Be firm.

Nettie:—Whatever one's faults may be you should be the last one to believe him. Good advice from you will have its effect.

M. T.—Always keep your word. It demonstrates nobility of character.

Annie:—Conceit will often betray one's weakness. Because one thinks so of you don't do anything to destroy that appreciation.

A. M.—We often carry our imposition too far. Never take what you don't need.

E. O.—Costly presents should only be taken from the one to whom you are engaged.

Edith:—President Cleveland invited Hon. James C. Matthews to his reception. President Harrison did not invite a gentleman of color neither has President McKinley.

Ada:—In your attempt to deceive others you deceive yourself. You may succeed for a time in deceiving others, but your sins will find you out.

Be a positive character, it denotes stability of character.

A good husband loves his mother.

One's honesty is measured by the amount of integrity that is developed.

Never allow a gentleman to call at church for you. If he cannot escort you there, let him wait until he has time to do so.

Don't crave to marry a man because he dresses well and looks dudish.

You can find honesty beneath tattered clothes.

Never go strolling in dark places. It is vulgar.

Be careful how you accept aid from those who pretend to be so much interested in your welfare.

Men have different ways to betray you.

Never say good bye except when you intend to leave the city.

It is dangerous to give up an old friend for a new one.

Praise the bridge over which you pass safely.
